

C O P Y.

"E" Division.

R. N. W. M. P.

Vancouver, B.C.

Confidential.

March 18th, 1919.

Report re -

The FEDERATED LABOR PARTY.

The following is a complete list of propaganda literature being sold by the Federated Labor Party at the present time.

Regina
File
175/244

The Labor Star, a weekly paper edited by T.T. Kingsley, with headquarters at 510 Dominion Bldg., Vancouver, and printed by the Star Publishing Co., Vancouver.

The Proletarian, a monthly paper, published at Detroit, Michigan.

The Soviets at Work, published by the Seattle Union Record Publishing Co., and republished by the Trades & Labor Council at Vancouver, printed at 405 Dunsmuir St., Vancouver.

The Bolsheviks & The Soviets, published by the Rand School of Social, and republished by the Labor Council, Vancouver, printed at 405 Dunsmuir St., Vancouver.

The following 7 publications printed and published by the Victoria Printing & Publishing Co. at 521 Yates Street, Victoria.

1. Labor & The New Social Order, a report of the British Labor Party on Industrial Reconstruction.
2. Peace & What Then, by the Countess of Warwick.
3. Inter-Allied War Aims, a full text of War Aims adopted by the Allied Labor & Socialist Conference held in London, Feb. 14th, 1915.
4. Way British Labor Party Left the Coalition.
5. How to pay for the War, by George Bernard Shaw.
6. Aunt Emmy wants to know who is a Bolshevist & why.
7. The workers Bill of Rights, a report from the Victoria Trades Unions Industrial Reconstruction Committee.

All the above publications are sold in large numbers in Vancouver and Victoria and are sent in bundle orders by Parcel Post and Express to the different Locals throughout the West. The Party funds are chiefly derived from the sales of this literature.

A copy of the current issue of the "Proletarian" and the "Labor Star" is attached.

Reg. No. 6020.

The Commissioner,
Forwarded -

Supt.,

19-3-19.