

Cut out the list of advertisers, patronize them, and tell them why.

E. T. KINGSLEY AT THE COLUMBIA

Wells Goes to Prince Rupert—Richardson to Victoria

The Federated Labor Party meeting at the Columbia on Sunday evening next will be addressed by Comrade Kingsley. As this is what is generally known as "Labor Sunday," special meetings are being held at other points in the province. Comrade A. S. Wells left on Thursday's boat for Prince Rupert, where he will speak at the Westholme Theatre, and Comrade Richardson will speak for the Victoria branch at the Columbia Theatre in that city on Sunday evening and at a "Brotherhood" meeting on the Sunday afternoon.

On Sunday, September 14, Comrade Tom Richardson will address the Labor Party at Prince Rupert, going east from there to Edmonton.

On Monday, September 1 (Labor Day), members of the Vancouver branch have arranged a basket picnic to Whitecliffe (Horseshoe Bay). They intend to leave by the nine o'clock ferry from Vancouver and travel by the 9.25 train from North Vancouver. Members wearing badges will be on hand to give information and tea, sugar and milk will be supplied at the "Bay."