He knows he cannot escape his own record. "The Socialist" by its terrible revelations of Wappratein in Cincinnath has started the city. Everywhere in Seattle, people are buying copies of "The Socialist" of April 13 and reading its account of what Wappy was in his young days.

The Clifef is now making every effort to suppress "The Socialist". He is exercising the most arbitrary power.

THE CZAR OF SEATTLE

Today Wappenstein is Seattle's omnipotent Chief of Police, appointed presumably by the Mayor, but we think in reality by a capitalist behind, the more fully in our next week's contribution which will be on "WILLIAM Wappenstein's appointment was a shock to many of Seattle's citizens and while a majority have recovered, many are yet wondering how it happened.

He got busy as soon as he was ap

He ordered all prize fighters to leave town but overlooked a bunch of Surething, Double Cross Grathers, who had been running fake fights and wrestling matches in a house boat on Lake Washington for mouths, and who continued for mouth after Way's appointment, and robbed polyple to the extent of two hundred thousand dollars, under Seattle's reform Mayor.

RTLAND PLATFORM

'We, the Socialists of the City of Portland, in convention assembled, do hereby reassert our adherence to the principles and program of International Revolutionary Socialism. In view of the fact that the Working Class, by their intelligence, industry and skill, create gvery object of wealth in the world, yet are, through the private ownership of the tools and means of production and distribution, denied access to the means of production and distribution, denied access to the very wealth which their own hands alone have created; and as we believe that the vesting of this power to withhold from the masses, by a powerful few, the surplus value which has been created by these masses, leaving them but a bare subsistence, is a privilege granted by a political force, the creature of these dominant few, the capitalist class; and as we further believe that this Class-Government, this private creature of the dominant few, of a necessity must become the public servant of the democratic whole:

Therefore we assert that the Socialists of the City of Portland enter the political field as a fraction of the International Socialist Movement which aspires to wrest from the capitalist class the powers of government and to use these powers in the interest of the Working Class.

Our aim in doing this is the abolition of all laws which west in the individual the right to own privately what is needed for use by all.

veet in the individual the right to own privately what is needed for use by all.

In other words, the abolition of the wage system.

With this aim in view we place in the field a ticket which is composed of dues-paying members of the Socialist Party, all of whom must have been members of the party at least one year. We demand of them that they pledge themselves, if elected, to act in accordance with instructions from their party organization and not as individuals.

And so without any attempt to mislead any person we lay before the voters this declaration of our principles and aims. If you believe in the taking over of the tools and means of production and distribution by society and the rendering to the worker of the full value of his labor, vote the Socialist Ticket as a whole and not for the Socialist as an individual. If you believe in the private ownership of these social necessities, vote against the Socialist Ticket.

We stand before the voters, not as non-partisans, but concessing to a belief in the strongest kind of partisanship. Our only viewpoint is a class viewpoint. We stand for the interest of the Working Class. For the Capitalist Class we have no concern.

WANTS TO FIGHT THE WHOLE BUNCH

The following fac-simile of Poulsen's letter ought to be good reading for Portland workingmen. The arrogant mill owner was only sorry all the Unions were not bunched together in the late strike, so he could lick the whole outfit while he was at it.

There is a good chance for the workers of Portland to gratify Mr. Poulsen about the first of June. They may have been unfortunately divided on the industrial field, but there is no reason why they should not unite in politics at the coming election. On this page is presented a Workingman's Platform and a Workingman's Ticket. If eyery Wageworker in Portland votes this ticket in the coming city election, Mr. Poulsen may learn "Who's Hoo Hoo."

ToThe Editor "The Journal.

In your, valuable St. Patricks Day number you informed the public that since the decided stand taken by the old unions against the late arrival the millowners have hardly been able to conceal their elation etc..etc. and more such stuff of equal or no value. Some of the millowners have been chuckling in their sleeves on account of the humor of the situation:- Mr. Gram, for the old unions, emphasizing to the best of his ability that under no circumstance would a union man be permitted to take the abondoned place of a Wont Worker, "and immediatly thereafter being called a liar faker and mountebank by the chief apostle of the new dispensation. Further than that I don't think that the aforementioned elation has taken hold.

Item: - If I don't seriously misjuage the temper of the millowners. they in all probability would have preferred to see all the unions,old and new, making common cause so as to find out, while we are about items, who is HooHoos in America,

(The above letter was refused publication by the Journal as well as by the Oregonian, both papers being thoroughly union-ridden, Now comes the Evening Telegram (see first page issue March 19th)Apparantly whenever union matter are concerned, the news these papers ### ladle out to the publife is nothing but frauc and falsehood.
