HAYWOOD NOT GUILTY THE SPEECH THAT

Socialist and Union Representatives Not Present When Verdict Was Rendered-Not Notified By Officials As Were Capitalist Reporters-Moyer's Bail Bond Filed Tuesday-Pettibone May Also Be Released On Bail.

BOISE, July 29 .- (Special Dispatch to "The Socialist") -Final scenes at the courtroom were d only by Canitalist reporters. The officials failed to notify the Socialist and union acceptant tives. I got there just after the announcement of the verdict, in time to shake hands with the jurors congratulate Haywood, also to see the petrified look on Oscar King Davis and others. Davis looked

Not another labor reporter besides myself was there to rejoice with Haywood in his supreme minutes. He told me he regretted nothing so much as their absence. Their presence in the courtroon was always a great comfort and strength to him and he wanted them to see him acquitted. I cannot blame myself for being three minutes late, for I watched the jury room all night from the State House grounds and only went asleep with exhaustion at 7 a. m. and upon the promise of a deputy to call in case anything happened, which he did not do.

The jury are being attacked today by partisans of the prosecution, who are furious with disapment. It is even said the jury was bought. Also that Judge Wood was bought.

Moyer's bond will be filed Tuesday morning, and we hope Pettibone also will be liberated on bond His trial is set for October 1, but will probably never occur.

All Idaho, except the fools, is sick of the whole thing,

HAYWOOD NOT GUILTY-From First Extra, Issued 9:04 a.m. Sunday, July 28:

BOISE, 1919 28—(Special Dispatch to "The Socialist.")—The jury in the Haywood case, after being out nearly twenty hours, returned a verdict of "Not Guilty" at 7:20 Sunday morning. While this verdict was not entirely unlooked for, it was nevertheless somewhat of a surprise, as most of the friends of the defense expected the jury to disagree. It is freely stated in Boise that the jury was swayed a little by the fact that they were taxpayers and would have to help meet the expenses of a new trial. A better explanation is that the jury was intelligent enough to see there was absolutely no evid-nee produced by the prosecution to show (Laywood guilty.)

A MESSAGE FROM HAYWOOD From Second Extra Issued 6:30 a. m., Monday, July 29:

BOISE, July 29.—(Special Dispatch to "The Socialist.")—Haywood received over a hundred telegrams yesterday and the stream continues. There was a stream of visitors at his home. Vernic and Heinic, it little thickner, as as happy as he.
