

ver Western Clarion and organizer of the Socialist Party, gave an address in the Trades hall under the auspices of the local branch of the party. Mr. Houston, the Socialist candidate in Winnipeg, occupied the chair, and introduced the speaker to a very large audience. Mr. Kingsley spoke generally along the line of scientific Socialism, explaining the iron law of wages and the doctrine of surplus profits. The address was very well received. Some statements made by