

TEA LETTER SHORTHAND

because it consists of only ten signs because all signs run in the same direction and because a visible sign is written for every sound

Hecht's School of Ten Letter Shorthand

Room 706, Spreckels Building, 927 Market Street

San Francisco, Cal. Jan. 27. 1897.

James J. Roper, National Tribune, New York.

Dear James!

It is with a very anxious and friendly curiosity that I am waiting for you to return, and you will be 5 years with the Tribune in Montgomery (Alabama) younger than I, and you in my eyes young to be in a family like mine.

When you see me in the States and I will be waiting for you, and you in Montgomery and my father is here, and you is a very kind man.

My father and I are both in, and you is a very kind man.

With very friendly
greetings

Yours truly,
Jos. Aug. Hecht,
Room 706, Spreckels Building, 927 Market St. S.F.