E. T. KINGSLEY AT THE ROYAL

Federated Labor Party to Have New Quarters in Near Future

On Sunday evening next Comrade E. T. Kingsley will be the speaker at the Federated Labor Party propaganda meeting in the Royal Theatre. It is almost three months since "the old man" has addressed a Vancouver audience. He is sure to have some interesting facts to present. His subject is "The Ruling Class Debacle." Comrade J. Gibson will take the chair. Meeting begins at 8 p.m. Doors open at 7:30.

The committee which has been endeavoring to find new quarters for the party in Vancouver has at last been successful, and the next few weeks will see the F. L. P. duly installed in its new premises. It is the intention to make the new rooms a home for all the different organizations affiliated with the F. L. P., the Labor School, Junior Labor League, Debating Club, Women's Committee, and to have a reading room and library fitted up.

The discussion at the Labor School next Sunday afternoon will centre round the topic, "Why There Are Poor People." The school meets in O'Brien Hall at 2:30 p.m.

The Junior Labor League will hold its educational meeting next Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the club rooms, 52 Dufferin Street West. The programme for the evening includes a debate on the subject "Resolved, That Allied Intervention in Russia Did More Good Than Harm." Any person between the ages of 14 and 20 is welcomed at these meetings.
