McSparrow's Way

Porter, Wash., May 25, 1904.
Comrade: Yours of 24th received and contents carefully noted. Will say that ever since I became convinced that Socialism was what I wanted (about two years ago), I have regarded it as a kind of sacred duty to assist in the spread of our doctrine as much as possible. Like Mason, of the "Appeal," I at first regarded "The Socialist" as a chronic ricker and trouble maker; but for reasons I cannot exactly explain, I have come to regard it as the very best paper in the movement, and I never let pass an opportunity to speak a good word for it.
At a meeting in Montezuma May 1st we were discussing (informally) different methods of propaganda. I told them that each week I sent in a 6 months subscription to "The Socialist." One of the Aberdeen comrades asked if I didn't think "The Socialist" was a pretty strong dose to give a beginner.
I told him that whenever "The Socialist" made a convert we could be sure he was a genuine Socialist, and not a mere dreamer like some of the "Appeal" converts (though I am an "Appeal" convert myself).
He assured I shall at all times do what I can to help "The Socialist."
I can't make any outlay of money, for I am dead broke and out of a job.
Yours fraternally,
JOHN MCLARROW.

is the opportunity it affords for the teaching of Socialism.
Organization and education must go hand in hand. As we learn to work together in a political campaign we must also learn to think together on economic questions.
The Populist party was destroyed because its membership was ignorant of economic laws. The underlying laws which control the development of society have been discovered by the Socialist economists, Marx and Engels. This knowledge of these laws constitutes the strength of the Socialist movement.
It is essential that this economic knowledge should be spread through the membership of the party, because the party is democratic in management. The rank and file control the Socialist Party. If the rank and file are ignorant of Social Science then the whole party is liable to go wrong both in principles and tactics.
It is the mission of "The Socialist" to educate workingmen in the fundamental laws of economics. It is not a difficult task. There is nothing too mysterious or too profound in these laws for any worker to grasp. It does not require a classical education, or even a common school education, to understand them. They can be made as simple as A B C.
The difference between "The Socialist" and some other Socialist papers lies in the fact that every picture in this paper, every article, every joke, every last line published, has some bearing on the basic fact of the Class Struggle in Society.
Read, for example, Mr. Bryan's latest—the platform of the Nebraska Democratic State Convention. It is full of talk about "the people," but not a hint of the radical division of modern society into two hostile classes, wage-workers and capitalists. Republicans and Democrats alike ignore this class struggle and deplore the appeal to class interests so constantly made by Socialists.

Too many Socialist papers are still in the mist of popular thought. They talk like the ignorant capitalists. Even when they mention the class struggle, they do not perceive its fundamental and central character. Their teaching is therefore misleading. Their readers are seldom clear in thought or decided and uncompromising in action.
It is for this reason that we urge our readers to push the circulation of "The Socialist." This paper has proved its ability to teach Socialism. Workingmen almost always like it and easily understand it. Our guarantee is to make a Socialist of any wage worker who reads this paper for six months.
We ask every reader to join the McSparrow Band and pledge himself to send in at least one 6 months subscription—to "The Socialist" every week from now to the November election. Please drop us a card and authorize us to add your name to the list.
We do not know Comrade McSparrow except by his letters. He says he is "dead broke." He evidently belongs to the great proletarian army, with "nothing to lose but his chains." One thing he can do, he can "get busy" enough each week to get "The Socialist" into the hands of one fellow wage slave for 6 months. Will you join him in this work?
If each of our 10,000 readers will join the McSparrow Band, it means 26 new subscribers from each one of them during the next six months, or 260,000 subscribers by November next. That would mean, from this paper alone, a quarter of a million votes for the Socialist Party.
You see what co-operation by each one will accomplish, comrades. Now for the Campaign! Will you join with McSparrow? If so, send in your name

SLAVE MARKET REPORTS

From almost every slave camp come reports of a cut in wages. It is claimed that the slaves are becoming restless. Discontent darkens the face of almost every toiler you meet. Of course, there are, here and there, men without spirit enough to resent any humiliation, however degrading. The masterless slave is learning to despise all such and there is developing among all the toilers a spirit of revolt—not open, violent revolt, but a determined set purpose to use all legal and proper means for the overthrow of class rule.
Evidence of this are apparent on every hand, and it is this that accounts for the aggressive attitude and bearing of the capitalist class in Colorado and elsewhere. This ruling class is manifestly ignorant of the nature of the new force which is stirring modern society, and as a result this class seeks to stay progress by a resort to brutal force.
This failure to perceive the nature and extent of the new force, will hasten the downfall of the master class, and as a consequence the present slave class must soon administer the affairs of the world. Prepare to come into possession of your own.

at once. Do not wait till tomorrow. Drop a postal card to "The Socialist," 116 Virginia Street, Seattle, Wash.
The Times also says that most of these men will not work. If this is so why should there be any other time for ten years?
The simple truth is that most of them are working men who will work, and they do work at every good opportunity, and the silly attempts to prove otherwise disclose a brutal and bitter hypocrisy.
"I am afraid that Socialism will destroy present institutions of society," said the "solid man of business."
"The institution of woman and child labor for instance," I said.
The solid business man smiled a sickly smile and then disappeared in the passing throng.
Carroll D. Wright, the man of many salaries, has assumed the task of proving the slave to be better off than ever before, but Carroll D. is entirely too bolsterous and blustery. He excites the suspicion that he is seeking by noise, to deceive us.
He reminds us of the old darkey in a thunder storm. The lightning flashed and the thunders rolled, greatly confusing Sambo. Dismayed by a sudden and loud report he cried out: "Oh! Lord, a little more light and less noise if you please." So we say to Carroll D. Wright.
The Woman's Relief Corps has placed the flag in all the Bellingham schools for the purpose of teaching patriotism. It is to be saluted every morning by the pupils.—Star, 5/24/04.
Salute the symbol that represents your own enslavement and degrades tion. Well, you cannot hide these facts and the enforcement of the order of the school board to salute a hated symbol can only result in disgust and abhorrence. The masters always prepare, the way for their downfall.

The Republicans and the Democrats are engaged in a dreary search for good men. Their very indifferent success in this endless exploration for good men, among their adherents would be very discouraging to the working class.
And then when these masters of the world happen to find what they call a good man, he usually proves to be an enemy to our class and the provided he can delude our class into thinking that he is a real friend, the better man he is in the estimation of the masters.
"Beware of the masters' good men!"
I observe that two of our leading papers are indulging in the elevating and refining practice of hurling epithets at one another. One of them calls the other a grandmother. It seems to me that almost any grand-mother has a just cause of action at law on the grounds of libel. But these great (?) dallies are willing tools of the master class and so long as they serve their masters they will be permitted to do almost anything, however degrading it may be.
We are often told that the courts are the bulwarks of our liberties; but the military authorities in Colorado have smashed that fairy story.
Do you still hope for relief from the Republican party, or the Democratic party? If so, can you tell why you entertain any such hope? Don't both these old parties believe in private ownership of the means by which life is sustained and do they not use the whole power of government to sustain such ownership? Then why expect anything from either of them?

An exchange says that Germany has too many doctors. Why not let the surplus doctors practice on the surplus working class population? It might be as well to kill the slaves that way as to shoot them.
Under the caption "The Danger of Socialism," the "Oregon Mail" publishes the platform of the Socialist party of the state of Washington. I could not ask more of any opposition paper. If any working man or working woman can see any danger to his or her interests in this platform we cannot and do not expect the support of such an one.
"Yes, my good man. I will give you a dime if you will promise not to spend it for beer," said the wealthy philanthropist.
"Tanks," was the reply, "I will open an account with the First National Bank and buy me champagne wid the interest as you people do."
"GET IN LINE WITH MCBRIDE."
"Yep." Get in line with McBride, because he has proven that all his talk about the dangers of the railroad lobby was simply and only a play to the galleries.
He favored a railroad commission and said repeatedly that such commission was essential to the protection of the dear people, but now he joins in with the clique who by tricks and schemes defeated the manifest will of the "dear people."
McBride seems to be tarred with the same stick with which all politicians are branded.

THE NATIONAL CAMPAIGN FUND.

Special Notice to All!

HEADQUARTERS BULLETIN. Chicago, Ill., May 28, 1904. Campaign Fund.

The following contributions have been made to the campaign fund since last report: John Wilson, Yonkers, N. Y., $1.00; Victor W. Sterling, Chicago, Ill., $1.00; Texas, $1.00; Wm. Bawler, Indianapolis, $1.00; Stephen O'Shanessy, St. Louis, $1.00; Mrs. N. B. ... $1.00.

National Organizer M. W. Wilkins will spend the next two months in West Virginia and Maryland, getting those states in shape for the national election.

National organizer Geo. H. Goebel enters Arizona early in June and after a month's work there will go through California to the Pacific Coast.

Robert Sallie, German Organizer, completed his work in Pennsylvania May 22nd and after filling ten dates in New York entered Massachusetts June 2nd for about two weeks engagements. At Wilkesbarre, Pa., where the movement has been inactive owing to inaction, Sallie organized a force of 15 members, all of them entirely new material. At Bethlehem, a former stronghold of the S. L. P., 32 members owning a fine labor program met from duty, joined the party in a body. Comrade Sallie will return West through Rhode Island, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Pennsylvania and Ohio.

Arrangements are being made for a Southern trip for Harry M. McKee, under the direction of the National Secretary. McKee covers South and North Carolina on the trip.
THE BLIND SOCIALIST ORATOR. J. B. Osborn, of Colorado, Coming. The Local Quorum have arranged for a monthly meeting for Comrade Osborn, the blind orator, during the entire month of July, i. e., if the Local desires his services and responds quickly for dates. In addition to the $2 per day salary, and not to exceed $2 per day expenses, Comrade Osborn is compensated to have a guide (his wife) whose actual expenses will have to be added in addition, which will probably make the total $50.00, or at most $75.00 per meeting.

Those at the State Convention who had the privilege of hearing this gifted yet unfortunate Comrade will need no further recommendation as to ability to expound the fundamental principles of Socialism.
Owing to the increased expense it is probable that Comrade Osborn should be sent to Eastern Convention, or far off the Sound country. He has the confidence and esteem of the State Secretaries and will do you good.

Locals who desire his services will please notify this office at once that dates may be arranged. He will reach Washington from Vancouver, B. C., and first dates will be in Whatcom, Slaght, Strohomb, and San Juan counties. He will spend at least five days in Seattle, and possibly longer. Your local will not make no mistake in taking a date. Let's hear from you. E. E. M.

The May financial report is a "luminous" crowd out of this issue on account of its length; $271.96 received, and $55.45 Balance "to the good," despite extraordinary expenses. Do better this month, Comrades! Don't forget to get a money order for amount, or register the Coin Cards. Dues were sent to the National Secretary for 1282 members for May.

Get ready for the Referendum, Comrades. It is probable that both State and National Conventions, Constitutions, etc., will be put out and be returnable at the same time. Study them thoroughly first vote for the best interests of the great movement we love, in every particular. The Socialist belongs to the future. E. E. M.

A FATAL OBJECTION. Editor Socialist: Although I have not yet closely compared the new constitution proposed by Comrade Cline with the old one as amended, there is one very serious objection to the Cline constitution which would in my opinion more than outweigh any reason urged in its favor.

The Cline constitution provides for a locally new way of electing a state committee, viz., one by each organized county. Suppose that this constitution should be adopted, then we would have the following result: We now have a state committee of nine members who will hold office until about July 15, when the returns from the referendum are all in. This referendum will undoubtedly elect the new state committee of nine members who will then take their office. Now, if the Cline constitution is adopted, continuing as it does, a plan for a new kind of state committee, this new committee of nine will immediately have to proceed to reorganize the state and call for a referendum for another state committee to take their place. This will take in all probability at least to the middle of September. Thus between the convention of May 29 and the fall election we will have three separate state committees, viz., the one now existing from May 29 to July 15, second the one elected by the present referendum vote, from July 15 to about September 15 and third, the one planned for by the Cline constitution, from September 15 to the November election and after.

Instead of prosecuting a vigorous campaign we will expend our best efforts in patching together party machinery. Could anything be more unfortunate than such a procedure? That this had not occurred to Comrade Cline was evident when I mentioned it to him at the convention.

One of his most important points was that he had spent two weeks on the question. I spent three weeks on the original draft of our first state constitution and the state committee of that time took several sessions to revise and correct it. Since that time it has been improved by the best thought of several conventions.

It is not yet perfect and after next fall's election, which we have more time, we can make any changes that may seem advisable, but it would be the height of folly to get ourselves into such a tangle during a presidential campaign. J. D. CURTIS.
