ANOTHER LETTER FROM JAIL

City Jail, Ellensburg, Wash., 7:30 p. m., August 10, 1908.

ney can produce wealth.
Some of the streets need repairing.
To hir free labor costs money and would increase the taxes of the aforesald cockroach capitalists.
So the judge, faithful to his trust as a "non-partisan" representative of the capitalist class, handed each a bunch of from ten to thirty days on

The containt five from bedsteads, upon which one may rest out tide of a beard.

There are some dirty blankets which contribute very much to the stink of the place. I am sure they have not been changed or cleaned for at least ten years.

The bill of fare for the victims of the capitalist class who find their way to this place consists of potatones with the jackets on, ecans and state meat served as a multigan, some state bread and butter (which is the best of the entire fare) and some dirty water, mismanel coffee.

The floor is of wood and is covered with fith. It looks like it hadn't come to be a cope toldet bow, a sink and a rusty heater in the front room. Soap is almost as scarce as hen't seeth.

One of the men in here now is a carpenter's helper. He has been in town five weeks and up to the time of his arrest last Tuesday had been working every day.

town five weeks and up to the time of his arrest last Tuesday had been working every day.

He was arrested for being drunk.

After the cowardly bully who arrested him got him into the cell where none but other victims could witeses, he struck him a blow on the neck with his billy, which laid him up for four days.

Another of the boys had been working 19 days on the Milwaukee railroad. He came in to get his check cashed. He got drunk. He was arrested. Just now some of the local comrades appeared with an order from the attorney to the pin-headed marshall who arrested me instructing him release me on my own recognizence. They are out serving it on him

The marshal refused to recognize the order from the elty attorney, so now they are after the concelted ass with an order for my release from the police judge. It is about $1.00 p. m. and I expect to be let out as soon as the comrades can find out which saloon the marshal is lounging in.

And hour later: I am about to be released. I am sure of this because I can hear the marshal causing a blue streak. He is telling be twen causes about how he will arrest me some more. I am out now and my guess as to where the comrades would find him was correct. They found him eating soup in the Eagle saloon, and no one saw him pay for

I appealed the case to the Superior Court.

I can say for Judge Lee Purdin that he reconsized the injustice of the verdict rendered, for when I sug-gested that it would have been bet-ter for us to have tried the case be-fore him he made the statement in the presence of myself and Henry Twilliger that he could not have con-victed me on the evidence presented, I would suggest, therefore, for the guidance of other Socialist speakers that when you are arrested in any

Now my age has exceeded three score and the people are growing more reckless and rough
Than they ever have been heretofore.

It makes little difference, the what, or the who,
Vice, virtue, brown, yellow, or white;
Just so it brings money, or satisfies lust,
Then, whatever it is, is all right.

If your consort don't please you,
why, get a divorce—
It is only a question of "Graft"—
And, for fear Socialism may make
the thing worse,
Cast your votes for Bill Bryan—

Dr. Osler was right, so it seems more and more!

In this money-mad, šensual age, We had much better chlorotorm me of three score
If philosopher, poet, or sage.

Of course, there's no room for an old fogy, now,
With his lotty ideals of worth,
Unless he has money, like our Harry

He had better get off of the earth.

Will I suicide then? No, sir, not or your life!
I'll continue to live like a man; Vote the Socialist ticket, be true to my wife, Sladden's letter in last week's "So-cialist" was a peach. There is only one thing he and I differ on. He says that I want to be the says that I am. Just think what a cinch that I am. Just think what a cinch the me too's would have. Remember San Francisco Local owned the "Advance" with something between six and seven thousand subs. When Mills upset the local he got the paper too. And Cameron King wasn't long changing it from Revolutionary to Opportunist.

I do not want to see the hard work of the last ten years come to nothing. Besides, just now the "Scattle" is the only "tree blue." In the "Call-fornia situation" we jarred "The Worker" loose with "The Socialist." Where is "The Worker" now'l it must have turned turtle. It's upside down sure, and the "Call" don't suit me either. It isn't what I expected it would be belief ment remain in the "The distallist" must remain in the state of the contraction of the state of the contraction of yoked to labor. Prodigious industrial works are being done. But nothing I see or know of compares with your work. You are a small band, forty or fifty thousand strong. You are poor, hard at work all day for others, or walking the street with breaking heart because there is no me to employ you. And yet YOU ARE achieving the greatest work of the day. By your labors and out of your pennies hundreds of weekly papers are peing started to educate mankind.

Against dallies backed by millions you have two dailies backed by your labor and leve and ascrifice. They are sometimes week and faint, but out of the blood of your glowing hearts austenance goes to support them.

Think for a moment of just one thing. For twe months their Voice will tour this continent. They, the workers themselves, are to have a special train to carry their message from factory town to factory town. And the railroads, in spite of themselves, MUST carry

That message and the state of the mass the Republicans and Damocrats go—to ask free carriage. Thousands upon thousands will send their pennies to carry that message. EVERY MAN, NO MATTER HOW POOR, WILL CONTRIBUTE SOMETHING, FOR IT IS TER HOW POOR, WILL CONTRIBUTE SOMETHING, FOR IT IS IN IS TARIN. Every comrade, from coast to coast, will send what he can. It may be ONLY A POSTAGE STAMP, but it will go, for any one of these men is jealous when another comrade does more than he to bring the new time.

And now, comrades, we must be off and to duty. In the words of Freiligrath, great German poet and friend of Marx: "Our steeds or Frankle To your saddles every one! Never quall before these shadows! You are children of the sun!"

OUR NINTH YEAR

"The Socialist" with this issue enters its ninth year. August 12, 1900, the date of the first issue.

The Mötto at the head of page one has never been changed. It still cates the purpose of this publication: "TO ORGANIZE THE SLAYES CAPITAL TO VOTE THEIR OWN EMANCIPATION."

During these eight years now past, "The Socialist" has sought to ganize the slaves of Capital." mainly by educating them (1) in Scientific hicipies and (2) in Anti-Fusion Tactics. This paper has been conspicuous habity the most conspicuous in America, in its insistence upon the Pro-rian Foundation of the Socialist Party, basing its arguments upon the mittle Facts of the class struggle, the conflicting economic interests Capital and Wage Labor and the Revolutionary Mission of the Pro-riat.

educational program has been followed for the reason that in-class conneciousness must precede any effective organization of sa. When the Protestrait knows its own exploitation and its own destiny, it will organize spontaneously, inevitably. "The Socialist" has consistently aimed all these years to organize storic destiny, it will organize spontaneously, inevitably.

30 "the Socialisis" has consistently aimed all these years to organize reducating.

From this time on a somewhat different line will be followed. Theotical education will not be neglected, but practical organization will retical education will not be neglected, but practical organization will retical education will not be neglected, but practical organization will retical education will not must be promoted, which cannot be inded or undermined by Capitalist devices. The Socialist Party no sooner comes a formidable engine against Capitalist government, unappreach be by any schemes of Fusion, than its Internal mechanism is attacked corroriev and destructive agencies.

Common interests, recognized in common, drive the workers together industrial and political organizations. What shall preserve them intact painst the disintegrating influences of perverted epolem set in motion by e overwhelming bribes which Capital is in position to offer!

In an increasing degree what is known as personal character is disparaing under a Capitalistic environment. Stability, responsibility, adrence to principle, moral integrity, class loyalty, are none two generemanent organization is accomplished with difficulty.

This is not to suggest any recurrence to the hopeless method of invidual betterment advocated by our strenuous President and his fellow for the proletariat.

But our task of organization is surely made more difficult and be-

Constitution — the Proletariat. Seating of the Proletariat is surely made more difficult and per-playing by the anarchic and degenerate elements of a society which Capital has create for us and out of which the new order must be constructed has create for us and out of which the new order must be constructed as the constructed of the construction of the c t figures concerning the development of the French population in 1997 there were 793,000 deaths and 774,000 births, as cess of 26,550 births over deaths in 1906. of despair are raising their voice to tell us that France is The latest figures at hand. In 190 sinst an excess of 2 Prophets of despa ing up her capital.

RACE SUICIDE

By Hubert Langerock

Prophets of despair are raising their voice to tell us that Prance is eating up her capital.

Let us investigate. Who are the men who are shouting loudest? Military men and their sympathiters. In the "Matin" M. Messimy points out that if the present low rate of natality continues and the dead overtop the living, in 15 or 29 years here will be a loss of 50,000 to 60,000 in the effectives of the army.

Senator Piot wants to give medals of honor to the mothers of large families, official jobs or tax reductions to the fathers. And he also demonstrates or tries to demonstrate the awful danger of a reduction of the number of soldiers.

And the Prench people refuse to listen.

But the militarists insist: The state has need of your children. Prance must maintain her rank among the nations of the world.

And the people laugh and reply: If the country wants our children why does not the country provide for them. We refuse to procreate more children then we have cradles to put them in.

With all due respect for the omisicient universal and encyclopedical authority on railroad rates, undestrable citizens, babies and football, which throwes in the White House, I wish to say: Good for France, good for the Preach, people. They have come to their senses. They have understood how was a substant of those same commodities.

Even from a capitalistic point of view this alfundon will cease to be dangerous, when other nations are in the same case.

The profestrat is aware of the dangers of this situation. It clearly understands that it trasstens the race in its quality as well as in its against; But they offer no spointy. Why should they? This stitude is a great deal more normal than that of the man who apes the abuse of ownership of the means of production and its consequent abuse in the hands of the capitalistic class by abusing his authority as head of the family and bringing listo the world children doomed to grow up somehow and anylow and go to work as soon as they are able to help the father carry the burden of the household. Is not the conscious moral restraint carry the tenden of the household. Is not the conscious moral restraint recknessly bringing forth a large brood for parasitical purpose. And after all, what are the capitalists compliaining off How about themselves? They have the craities, and the food, and the schools, and the prospects for the future. Why is their own offspring so scarce in numbers? Is it because they fear to add to the burdens of life by adding mor responsibilities, or to weight themselves down in the struggle for existence, or to clog hopelessly the career of the professional man? If this is so, what logic and consistency is there to reproach the wage-

They have come to the conclusion that a shift had a right not one to be born to a life of wretchedness and misery.

More and more in every politically advanced country, race-suicide becomes a phase of the class-struggle. The masses indication their moral duties towards generations yet unborn, and their material interest not to bring into the world children whom the capitalistic class will use before they are physically able to do so, in order to lower the wages of adults.

France is only the ploneer in a general movement towards reduction of the birth rats, which is preceptible in Australia and all over Europe, and would be a fine of the prolific nature of our emigrants did not neutralize this phenomenon.
