

civic position and take a well-earned rest.

SOCIALISTS WILL DARE THE POLICE

Ten Socialists will tonight descend on Carrall street, the "People's Forum," and they declare they will all speak at once in order to give the police opportunity to arrest them. It is the intention of the Socialists, so they say, to make a test of the right of the police to arrest men or women who engage in street speaking. The spellbinders are to be on hand at 8 o'clock.